Poetry.

A Nineteenth Century Saint.

BY DAVID GREY, EDITOR OF THE BUFFALO COURIER.

Beautiful is my darling's face,
And yet I know her heart so well
That, thinking always of the pearl,
I have not time to praise the shell.
I care not that with words of mine
Her eyes, deep splendor be extolled,
Nor any wreath of speech would twine
Within her tresses' wavy gold.
Nor mine to praise the saxon hue
That on her cheek the rose outstrips,
Nor see in curvings of her lips
Some Greek ideal born anew.
Ah! no for other court is due
From such as near her heart may dwell,
My darling whom I know so well.

I think (while softer fancies sleep)
Of those old altar-pictures quaint
Which pure-souled Memling loved to paint
Or those that in fair Florence keep
His fame, as limner and as saint.
Who, kneeling, painted Heaven, and so
Was named of men Angelico.
All shut such reliquary stands,
Rich paintings on each folded lid
That keeps the inner beauty hid.
And almost one is stopped to gaze,
And half, before the doors expand,
Would lift the censer of his praise.
But, open! and the straight day beam
Such glories of the fairer dream,
All other light is quenched than its.
Unclouded glows the golden air,
And, ringed with Heaven's own aureole,
The very deep of Beauty's soul
Throbs visible where The Virgin sits.

So, curtained from the vulgar eye,
Abides the vision, chaste and fair;
And though the world may pass it by,
Or laud its covering unaware,
O! soul of love, O! heart of prayer,
Look inward, for the shrine is there!

Selected Story.

Doomed and Saved.

On a handsome lawn fronting an old ivy grown mansion, in the State of Virginia, one pleasant afternoon not many years since, a group of young people of both sexes was gathered. Standing in their midst was an old woman, bent down with age, looking as if she stood on the brink of the grave; but her dark, restless eye showed that there was a vigorous life in her mind, if not in her body.

She had been "telling fortunes" for the young people gathered around her, and to all but one she had foretold a bright and happy future. The exception to this rule was a bright, handsome boy of nineteen with a dark passionate face, and an expression which denoted perfect fearlessness.

Five years before the opening of this story, an old gentleman and his nephew had moved to Virginia, from some Northern State, and buying a farm, had made it their home. Mr. Mercer and his nephew Frank were treated with kindness by the gentlemen of the neighborhood, and they received invitations to visit the plantations near them. Frank became acquainted with all the country, but his uncle never left his farm, and seemed to shun society. For this many reasons were given, but the true one was that he had lost all his family, and Frank's parents having left him in Mr. Mercer's charge, he determined to devote himself to the boy, and he found sufficient enjoyment in his company, and in cultivating his farm. Though reported very wealthy and that he always kept a large sum of gold in the house, Mr. Mercer and Frank lived in a quiet way, and made no display.

Thus passed Frank's youth from his fourteenth until his nineteenth year, until our story opens. A man of superior education, Mr. Mercer had been his nephew's teacher, and had imparted to him much knowledge of the world, letters, and of people, so that Frank, at nineteen, was as well informed as if he possessed a cultivated education. There were those in the neighborhood who reported that the boy was wild and dissipated, and this found ready believers in others; so that Frank had some enemies as well as friends.

Thus we find; and in the evening of the commencement of our story he had been invited to an entertainment given by a wealthy planter to his children. Mr. Dewes, the planter, had three children, the youngest and loveliest of whom was Mary, a girl of twelve. Mary and Frank were the best of friends, and loved each other dearly; so when the fortune-teller predicted a dark and stormy future for Frank, the tears arose to the child's eyes, and she said "Don't listen to her Frank."

But the boy laughed, and turning on his heel, walked away.

Two days afterwards he left home for a week's hunting among the mountains; but the second night after his departure, the neighborhood was aroused by the startling news that old Mr. Mercer had been murdered by his nephew. One of the servants passing the house at night heard a cry, and seeing Frank's window opened, sprang in and walked across the hall to Mr. Mercer's chamber, from whence the cry came. Lying upon the floor was the old man, dead, while near him stood his nephew, with a bloody knife in his hand. In fright the negro rushed from the house, and gave the alarm. Persons from the neighborhood were sent for, and Frank was seized against every protestation that he did not kill his uncle, and thrown into jail.

The feeling against the youth was intense, for the negro had told the story of how he had found Frank, and a wayfaring pedler who had just ascended the front steps, to ask to stay all night, corroborated the negro's statement.

The case came off, and the charges were made known. Frank was accused of starting on a hunting expedition for a blind, and then returning from the mountain by night, had entered the room, and attempting to remove a large bag of gold kept by his uncle had aroused him, and upon being discovered had driven his hunting knife into the heart of Mr. Mercer: the gold was on the floor, its weight having torn through the bag when it was raised. The knife with which Mr. Mercer was killed was one he had given to Frank some days before, and was a large dirk-knife encased in a silver scabbard.

Pale as death, but showing no sign of fear or guilt upon his handsome face, the prisoner sat unmoved by his sentence, which was to die on the gallows.

When asked if he had anything to say, Frank arose, and looking around the court room, in a clear voice answered:

"I have! Circumstantial evidence has condemned me. I admit it looks as if I did the deed, but I am guiltless of murder. Dropping my percussion cap box in a mountain stream, I returned home for more; for without caps my gun was useless. It was a lovely night, and I determined to enter the house by my room window, get the caps, and return without awaking my uncle. I tied my horse to the fence, sprang into the window, and then a loud crash, a call out, and a shriek in the direction of my uncle's room. I rushed thither—a dark form rushed by me in the uncertain light of the room, and I fell over something on the floor. With fear in my heart I arose, lighted a candle, and saw my uncle's body covered with blood, gold scattered upon the floor, and my knife, which had done the deed, lying near. I picked up the knife, and thus was I found by a negro, and seen by the peddler. As God is my witness, I did not murder the good old man, who has protected me throughout life, and whom I love as though he was my father. I am guiltless of the fiendish deed, but submit to my fate!"

A silence fell upon all. There were, however, but few who would believe the youth's statement. Among the latter was Mr. Dewes and his family, who, through all, remained staunch friends.

Frank Mercer was to be hung, to die an ignominious death on the gallows, and hundreds flocked to the little town where the execution was to take place, to see him die. How they were disappointed to find that the night before he had escaped! How, no one knew, but he had left a note addressed to the jailor, thanking him for the kindness shown him while he was in his charge, and his regrets that his escape might cause him trouble, but saying he had an opportunity of escaping, and took advantage of it, for he had no idea of dying an ignominious death for an act he was not guilty of, merely to gratify the curiosity of a gaping crowd. Freedom was offered him, and he accepted it, and he hoped he would yet be able to prove his innocence.

This was about the substance of the letter, and when it was published in the local paper, there were some who were glad the boy had escaped the gallows.

Mr. Mercer's property was in his will, and left to Frank, and it was found to be considerable. Trustees assumed charge of it, and before long the quiet community had settled down to its usual routine, and the murder and escape were, in a short time, almost forgotten.

Ten years had passed away, and no word of the fugitive had been heard, and people believed him dead. One exception was Mary Dewes, now grown to womanhood. She had never believed him dead, and through her life treasured Frank's image in her inmost heart—the mystery which hung around him but added strength to her regard. Her sisters had married, her mother was dead, and with her father she had lived at the old homestead.

Business calling Mr. Dewes to Havana, he took Mary with him, and they set sail from Charleston in a fine ship running south. They had been some days at sea, when in the dead of night a fearful cry of "Fire!" was heard, which aroused all from slumber. In vain were efforts made to quench the flames. The seamen in flight rushed into the only available boat, and it sunk with them, and left them struggling in the ocean to be borne away by the wind and waves, while Mr. Dewes, and Mary, the captain of the ship and a few others, were huddled away up in the stern, awaiting the fearful doom which must to all appearance overtake them.

"Sail, ho!"

The joyous cry came from the captain, who had been straining his eyes over the ocean, in hopes of seeing some vessel coming to save them. Swiftly flying toward them came a low, rakish, three-masted schooner, which ever and anon sent up a light to those on board the burning ship that succor was near.

Hark! the deep boom of a gun is heard, and as the captain listens, he exclaims, "Miss Dewes, we are all right now; cheer up, for there comes a vessel of war to our aid."

"Ship ahoy!" came in ringing tones from the schooner, as she came near the burning ship, which was being rapidly driven by the wind.

"Ahoy!" answered the captain.

"Throw a long line from your ship, and I will send you a boat," came in the same ringing tones.

The line was thrown, the boat attached, and after a little difficulty, the people from the ship were transferred to the schooner, and Mary was soon in the cabin rejoicing over their escape from a horrible death.

At breakfast the next morning the young captain of the war schooner descended to join his guests at the table, and as he entered Mary sprang toward him.

"Frank Mercer! Oh, it is you—is it not?"

One glance at the beautiful girl, though years had passed, Frank Mercer—for it was no other—recognized the playmate whom he had never ceased to think of.

Mr. Dewes came forward, and what a joyous meeting was there; but seeing a cloud, as if of bitter memories, come over the young captain's face, Mr. Dewes said:

"First, let me relieve you of one thing. Your innocence in Virginia has been thoroughly established; for a negro who was hung the other day for killing a woman, confessed just before his death that he had murdered your uncle, and your arriving when you did, had prevented him from getting the gold, but made him escape from the house. He knew your uncle kept a large amount of money, and you being away, as he thought, he procured your knife, and with it committed the fatal deed!"

Frank listened to Mr. Dewes almost breathless, and when he had concluded, he bowed his face in his hands and wept like a child.

"But come in," said Mr. Dewes at length, "we are hungry and need breakfast, and are dying to know how you became captain in the Mexican navy.

"My story is easily told, my friends, for after escaping from prison through your kindness, I went to Mexico, entered the navy, and, having rendered some service, rose to my present command, which has been the means of saving your lives.

Little more need be added.

Frank resigned his commission, and returned home, where he was lionized by the whole community. He came in possession of his estates, which where greatly increased in value; and six months afterward, in the town where he was to have the hangman's halter placed around his neck for death, he had the noose of matrimony thrown around his life, and his bride was Mary Dewes. Thus his life had been bright and dark in a remarkable degree.

A correspondent says George Washington "never would have made an editor, because he could not tell a lie."

"Old Letters."

BY HECLA HOLLYWOOD.

I am sad to-night for my thoughts have wandered back to the halcyon days of yore; to the days of my childhood, when life was only a dream filled with beautiful scenes and faces, carefully shading all care and trouble each rose concealing its thorn.

Leaving the gay throng in the parlor with a weary sigh of relief, I passed to my room, and oppressed with a feeling of sadness and an uncommon desire to live again "those happy hours," I took up a small square package, covered with white paper and tied with a black ribbon, both now yellow with age, and examining it, I found it labled "Old Letters." I could scarcely suppress a cry of delight; these, thought I, will open every labyrinth of the dead past.

Seating myself, I carefully undid the package, feeling all the while as if I were in the solemn presence of a messenger from the happy bygone days—Happy did I say; yes, happy I find them to be when closely compared to the present.

The first letter I opened was from a gay friend of mine, we were schoolmates Lula and I, but after an unbroken intimacy of two years, we parted; never dreaming that it was forever. During the vacation, she loved and married, and in the spirit of the old, old story died broken-hearted.

I heard from her only once after her marriage and that last letter contained a world of woe. Is there not a life history in every face; yea, and in every letter too?

Here is one bearing a finer handwriting, it is from cousin M. telling me of his engagement with the gifted Miss R. "I dare not express too much joy, he wrote," for "there is many a slip betwixt the cup and the lip" you know. As if I could not see in every sentence the deep happiness he feels! I congratulate you my dear cousin, and hope quite as sincerely as you do, for the early consumation of your wishes.

Here is one signed "truly your friend A. M. B." How true he was, or how dear he was to me no one ever knew, nor did they ever imagine how eagerly I looked for the mail, or how happy his letters made me; they were to me what an oasis in the desert is to the weary traveler.

Our long acquaintance ripened into love, long ere he decided to go West to seek his fortune there. They tell me that the "red man of the forest" has slain him; it may be so, I only know that his letters have ceased, this is the last one. All things were well then. I shudder to think that his bones may be bleached now under the western sun and I apparently as gay as ever. Can it be that the God we both so willingly worship and trust, would suffer us to be sundered so cruelly, will leave him unburied, unwept for, his dying pillow unsoothed by the hands of affection? I could hardly say, "thy will be done," if I knew that all these reports were true.

The next is a light flippant letter from Susie M. asking me to be her bride's-maid. How well my memory serves me! I remember how I spent every moment of that evening. I hear them now calling me beautiful, but Oh! so cold and haughty. They little knew how I was suffering. That day had been secretly appointed for my own wedding, but since I heard of his death, I chose never to reveal our true relation to each other. So passed away the only aim my life ever knew. Did I say that they called me beautiful? And what is beauty? A celebrated poet says it is

"A doubtful good, a glass, a flower,
Lost, faded, broken, dead within an hour."

To the truth of this the experience of thousands can testify. I pass rapidly over many. Some of them came to me in hours of deepest melancholy, and lifting the veil, showed me "the silver lining to every cloud," Others came like a withering southwind, finding me in the very meridian of hope and anticipation, they cast a deep shadow over my heart, long ere happiness had reached the zenith of his glory.

These old letters are but a symbol of life, ever changing, light and dark alternating, yet life is simply what we make it, and friendly reader, I dare say it is wrong to say that "my life is dark and dreary," only look around you, behold, "thy fate is the common fate of all."

I closed and replaced the package in my drawer. The fire in the grate has burned low, giving but a feeble flickering light, reminding me very forcibly of the light of life now burning low within me! And the question arises, whither art thou going? Sadly the echo answers, "to the land of the Hereafter."

Miscellaneous.

Means what He says.

Though "confirmations strong as proofs of Holy Writ," and as numerous as the sands on the sea shore, were produced to prove that Dr. Pierce, the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is in earnest and means what he says, when he offers $500 reward for any case of Catarrh which he cannot cure, yet there would be some skeptics and fogies who would continue to shout, "Humbug!" "HUMBUG!" "It cannot be, because Dr. Homespun says Catarrh cannot be cured." Now, this Dr. Homespun is the identical, good-natured old fellow who honestly believes and persists in declaring that this earth is not round or spherical, but flat as a "slap-jack," and does not turn over, otherwise the water would all be spilled out of Deacon Bascom's mill pond. But astronomical science has positively demonstrated and proven that Dr. Homespun is wrong in supposing this earth to be flat and stationary, and medical science is daily proving the fact that he is no less mistaken and behind the times in regard to the curability of Catarrh. In short, it has been positively proven that this world moves, and that medical science is progressive—the opinion of Dr. Homespun to the contrary notwithstanding. That Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure Catarrh, thousands who have used it attest.

Then buy it, and use it, in doubt do not stand, You will find it in drug stores all over the land.

A clergyman, having made several attempts to reform a profligate, was at length repulsed with, "It is all in vain, doctor; you cannot get me to change my religion." "I do not want that;" replied the good man, "I wish religion to change you."

The South and Grant—Letter from Colonel Ewell—Grant's Re-election Urged—His Services for the South.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., May 18, 1872.

To——.

DEAR SIR: In compliance with your request I here repeat the substance of our conversation on the last, and approaching, Presidential elections, though I do not suppose my opinions on such subjects are worthy of attention or repetition. You expressed some astonishment when I informed you that in 1868 I was favorable to General Grant's election to the Presidency of the United States, and was as decidedly in favor of his reelection. I will, again, give my reasons for this preference.

It was my conviction, in 1868, that the election of a President, opposed by decided majorities of both Houses of Congress, would serve no purpose but to increase the ill feeling and disquietude that followed a like condition of affairs during Mr. Johnson's administration, and, perhaps, to pave the way for more serious disorders and uneasiness. It was also my conviction that an assured and peaceful Union was a necessity to the people of Virginia, and as much so to those of the other Southern States. Whatever tended, directly or indirectly, to produce undue excitement, and thence, possibly, revolution, I deprecated as the greatest evil that could befal this country, agreeing with Bulwer, that "a cause, which the noblest allow to be good, and which, when successful, all time approves, may seem to justify the attempt at a revolution; yet recalling now all the evil passions it excites, all the ties it dissolves, all the blood it commands to flow, all the healthful industry it arrests, all the madmen it arms, all the victims that it dupes, I question whether one man really honest, pure, and humane, who has once gone through such an ordeal would ever hazard it again, unless he was assured that victory was certain; aye, and the object for which he fights was not to be wrested from his hands amidst the uproar of the elements that the battle has aroused." Then, too, I had implicit confidence in General Grant's earnest wish to "have peace," in his good will, and in his patriotism. This confidence originated in the terms he gave at Appomattox Court-house to his great opponent and the battered remnant of that brave army that had staked its all upon a cause for which it was "no more to combat or to bleed," and that had so long resisted his legions. These terms, that "each officer and man will be allowed to return to his home, not to be disturbed by the United States authority so long as they observe their paroles and the laws in force where they reside," are without a precedent in the history of all such struggles for their liberality, and were as wise as liberal, for while they effectually terminated the contest they protected those who surrendered from the legal consequences of waging war against the Government, and probably saved from execution or imprisonment Lee and scores of his gallant associates.

The effect of these terms, as stated in General Grant's report of the closing operation of the war, was "that General Lee's great influence throughout the South caused his example to be followed, and, to-day, the result is that the armies lately under his leadership are at their homes, desiring peace and quiet, and their arms are in the hands of our ordinance officers."

In the closing sentence of this report he pays to the Southern troops so lately in arms against his own the following tribute:

"Let them" (the Eastern and Western United States armies) "hope for perpetual peace and har

National Republican Convention.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION will be held in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 5th day of June, 1872, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS.

Hon. CLINTON L. COBB has been renominated for Congress in this District. To be honored with his party endorsement for the third time is a compliment of which any public man may well feel proud. Of course this action of the nominating Convention is highly gratifying to all his friends.

Early in the canvas we gave our reasons why Mr. COBB should be re-nominated. His record in Congress has been pure and unsullied; his every vote has been consistent; he has faithfully performed his duty; he has the confidence of the Administration and its friends at the National Capitol, and his long experience and familiarity with all the Departments enables him to be of more service to his constituents than a new man could be.

Now that the nomination has been made let all bickerings and contention cease. Let those who have been indiscreet in counsel of the more wise and prudent, and all act and work for the success of the ticket. The NORTH CAROLINIAN will do its full duty, and will challenge any to surpass it in zealous and earnest support of the regular nominee.

THE PEOPLE STAND FIRM.

Men do not make up their political opinions in a day, neither do they hold them so lightly as to be able to throw them off at any moment. Their convictions are deliberately made up and are cherished. With many their views are sacred, and are conscientiously held.

No one has demonstrated it to be a wise ruler to quarrel with a man about politics, his religion, or his medicine. He generally chooses his friends with care, and is too devoted to them to throw either over lightly. Parties may change frequently, but men do not carry their congregation with them; doctors, also, sometimes change their systems of practice, but do not take their patients along; and the politician who changes, expecting to carry his associates with him because he has changed, will suddenly wake up to a sense of his foolish delusion.

Hence the familiar names arrayed in the Cincinnati—GREELEY movement does not alarm us. With many of them we are well acquainted. They represented only themselves. Each man had his grievance. It reminded us of the story of the motley host of outlaws that thronged to David in the Cave of Adullum. Every man that was in debt and every one that was in trouble rallied to David's refuge in the rocks; but they, and they only came. They brought no strength to them—nothing, in fact, but their debts and troubles. Let no one, therefore, think that because a few Captains have revolted, the rank and file are thereby affected. They, thank heaven, stand steady and unbroken as ever.

Where is the white man's party of North Carolina? Echo answers White hat part, Aha!

THE FUTURE OF OUR CITY.

In every community we find two classes of men—the slow and the quick, the timorous and the bold. These represent the constitutional differences among mankind, and they exist everywhere. The one class are slow—slow in their thoughts, slow in their feelings, slow in their movements, slow in everything. They are doubting, hesitating, vascillating, easily baffled by unexpected opposition, and brought to despondency by difficulties that should only incite them to more vigorous exertion. These represent the one class.

But fortunately for society and the communities in which they live there is another class, the men who are quick—quick in thinking, quick in forming their conclusions, and quick in carrying them out. They are bold, enterprising and irrepressible in business. Were it not for these the indecision of the unenterprising, irresolute, passive, submissive class would stop the wheels of progress, thus seriously affecting the community as well as the individual.

Take Elizabeth City for an illustration. What have the slow and timorous class done for her? They have ever acknowledged that her location and natural surroundings have made it possible for her to become an important City, but to what extent they have rendered aid or assistance in that direction? They have always been complaining, but never put their shoulders to the wheel, have always theorized but never backed their judgments in the only practical way to test their theories. Of course the town could not advance and prosper in such hands.

Latterly the other class have been making themselves felt—men possessing the bold spirit of enterprise, active, prompt and stirring. And behold the results! A new spirit has been infused into our people. Improvement, like a contagion, is sweeping over the town. The past is being forgotten in the bright prospects of the future, and our people are beginning to feel that it is a good deal more than probable that ours will soon become the most important City in all this part of the South.

JUDGE MERRIMAN AT ELIZABETH CITY.

The Democratic candidate for Governor, Hon. A. S. MERRIMAN, delivered his campaign speech in the Court House at this place on Saturday. Extraordinary efforts had been made to get up a large mass meeting. Appeals were sent out through notices in the papers, posters and private letters to "the faithful" in this and neighboring counties to rally and give this "son of the mountains" a grand reception. Thousands were confidently expected, and arrangements were made to hold the meeting in the Academy Green; but lo! when the hour arrived there were not enough people assembled, including boys and Radicals, to fill the Court House. Evidently MERRIMAN stock is not up to par in this section of the State. The people have no faith in him. They look upon him as an aristocrat—as a representative of the class having no sympathy with or for the masses, and they have not forgotten that he was the apologist and defender of the Ku Klux conspirators who have brought so much odium upon the fair fame of North Carolina.

The Democratic leaders were fearfully disappointed in the crowd; we were disappointed in the Speaker. The papers had heralded him as a man of great ability and as an orator of no common order. His effort by no means filled the bill. He proved himself to be a man of large utterance, but, as is generally the case in those instances, of small performance. His speech was too long, too dull, too prosy. It failed to excite enthusiasm. He spent too much time alluding to bye-gone issues—raking up the ashes of the extinct Rebellion and blowing to see if some lingering spark might not be coaxed out of them, hoping to reap some ephemeral advantage therefrom. His platitudes about the supremacy of civil government, the privilege of habeas corpus and the freedom of the press were all very fine, but he omitted to inform his audience that the hardest blows and deepest stabs these received were from the hands of the same HORACE GREELEY he had just eulogized and applauded.

The Judge dilated extensively on frauds and corruptions, and especially on the combinations and devices by which the State was swindled in her Rail Road bonds, but he was very careful not to acknowledge that he himself was the Attorney of the "Prince of Swindlers," and that he had drafted the very bill whereby the cheat and swindle was accomplished—the bill through which North Carolina was defrauded out of millions, thus adding to her desolation and increasing the universal impoverishment of her people.

But we have neither the time nor the space to follow him through his winding, tortuous speech. He demonstrated that he lacks the candor and fairness needed in the Executive officer of a great State. He is too much of a demagogue, too little of a statesman for any such high position. If Phrenology is true it will show that his bump of mis-information is large, nay, over developed. It would be unwise and unsafe to place any such man in the office now so ably and satisfactorily filled by TOD R. CALDWELL. The people are not disposed to do any such foolish thing.

THE AMNESTY BILL PASSED.

The Amnesty bill has passed both Houses of Congress. It is now a law. It removes political disabilities from all persons whomsoever "except Senators and Representatives of the Thirty-Sixth and Thirty-Seventh Congresses, officers in the judicial, military, and naval service of the United States, heads of Departments, and foreign Ministers of the United States." This leaves probably not more than about three hundred persons under disabilities.

Who drew the platform of the North Carolina Democracy? Answer: Hon. THOMAS L. CLINGMAN—the same man who swears that he received Fifteen Hundred Dollars from the notorious SWEPSON.

MAGNA CHARTA.

"A Constant Reader" asks us to explain the origin and meaning of the term Magna Charta. It was a law or decree signed by King JOHN of England on the 15th of June, 1250, and has ever been termed the great charter of English Liberties. It confirmed the liberties of the Church, redressed grievances incidental to feudal tenures, prohibited unlawful amercements, distresses or punishments, restrained the royal prerogative of perveyance and preemption, regulated the forfeiture of lands, prevented exclusive grants, established the right of the owner of personal property to dispose of it by will, put the law of dower on the footing on which it has stood ever since, protected merchants, required uniformity of weights and measures, guarded against delays and denials of justice, brought the trial of issues within reach of all freemen, asserted and confirmed the liberties of the city of London and other cities, and protected every freeman from loss of life, liberty or property except by the judgment of his peers or the law of the land. The principles of this great charter were never forgotten or lost sight of by the people, and it was called "the keystone of English liberty."

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES FOR CONGRESS AND SENATORS.

The Democrats of this District met in Convention at Edenton on Thursday last and made their nominations for Congress and Senators. For Congress they selected Col. DAVID M. CARTER, of Beaufort county. He is a man of wealth and of considerable ability. We believe he was an old line Whig, and at one time was engaged in organizing Union Leagues. He was opposed to secession and the Democratic war, but when the latter was ended, instead of co-operating with the Government in a just and loyal reconstruction he gravitated over into the camp of the enemy. With such a record, let those vote for him who can.

For Senators the old team was re-harnessed—Dr. SPEED and Mr. SKINNER. We shall have something to say about their record before the canvas closes. We like them both personally, but politically——!

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Republican party is a party of Progress and is the advocate and defender of Human Rights. It favors the equality of all before the law. It insists upon the preservation of constitutional liberty. It disapproves of all unconstitutional legislation for the cure of any of the disorders of society. It opposes the surrender of individual rights to those who ask that their prejudices, practices or creeds shall be the law of the land. It demands equal and just rights and duties for every human being, and the largest liberty consistent with the public good and the preservation of social order. What earnest, true man can object to co-operating with a party embodying such grand and living principles?

DO NOT FORGET.

The thoughtful and intelligent people of the country do not easily forget. When the Democracy make the charges of usurpations and corruptions against the Administration of Gen. GRANT, those who have familiarized themselves with the histories of Democratic administrations call attention to the usurpations of JACKSON and POLK, the great theft of SWARTWOUT under VAN BUREN, the thriftless extravagance of PIERCE, and the open and disgusting corruption of BUCHANAN—his acts of force, fraud and perjury. Verily, those who live in glass houses should be very careful how they throw stones.

CAN YOU TRUST THEM?

People of North Carolina, be not deceived. Remember that Judge MERRIMAN and his friends always have been and are to-day the enemies of your State Constitution—the grand charter conferring on you the rights and priveleges you enjoy. They not only opposed its adoption, and worked as never men worked before to cheat you out of your homestead last summer, but they are exerting themselves to their utmost to change it to suit their partisan purpose now. Do not trust them. It is not safe.

FOR GREELEY.

It is rumored that Hon. C. L. Cobb, of North Carolina, who has been intensely loyal to Grant, has renounced Radicalism, and will in a few days, declare for Greeley and the Cincinnati Platform. It is also rumored that he will be a Liberal Republican candidate for Congress from the 1st District.—Raleigh News.

The above is false—false in every particular.

Those who correctly read the signs of times very clearly see that both the judgment and conscience of the nation are uniting in recognizing the fact that the continuance of the Republican party is indispensible to the well being of the Republic. They believe this affirmatively, because of the good it will accomplish by remaining in power, and negatively, because of the evil it will prevent by keeping the Democratic party out of power in any form, or under any guise.

Judge MERRIMAN was very severe in his speech on Saturday against those who organized Union Leagues in this State. This was an unkind cut at Col. CARTER, the Democratic nominee for Congress. Let him retaliate by denouncing the Judge for his defense of the Ku Klux.

"The Democratic party now sees this Administration, which cares nothing for the Republic, trying to perpetuate its power,"—Democratic Exchange.

Psha! The party that calmly looked on while BUCHANNON, PIERCE and POLK were doing the same thing needn't lift its eyebrows now.

That General GRANT defeated JEFFERSON DAVIS, and caused his boasted Confederacy to crumble and fall, is a fact no man will dispute. Just so certain will he defeat the bail of the Confederate leader in the coming Presidential canvass. It is too soon yet for DAVIS or his friends to assume power in the United States.

Vesuvious has had another eruption. It occurred on the 24th ult. It created a great panic, driving over 20,000 people from their homes. The currents of burning lava were repeated for several days, issuing in all directions from the crater and doing vast injury to the neighboring towns and villages. An eye witness says:

Versuvious was a mass of flames, and no one felt certain that the ground might not open beneath his feet. Toward Saturday night the fiery deluge ceased, and the mountain assumed another aspect. It roared and rumbled fearfully, and for ten entire days rained continuous showers of fine, black dust; every one was compelled to carry an umbrella—many I met with handkerchiefs over their heads, and fine gauze coverings on their faces. That fine impalpable dust covered everything, and entered everywhere. It was several inches deep in the streets; it entered our doors and windows, which were carefully closed; and our plates, and the very handles of our knives, I observed yesterday, at dinner, were roughened by its presence. "Signori you must pardon it," said the servants, "we cannot attempt to maintain cleanliness."

GEN. GRANT AND THE QUAKERS.

There is always a great deal of trouble among politicians, during Presidential election excitements, about what the Quakers have done, or will do, or won't do. The Democrats and the "Liberals" are indulging in the hope that this year they will support GREELEY. They will do no such thing. As a body they are the warmest friends Gen. GRANT has in the country. His Indian policy and his efforts in behalf of peace and order have made them his earnest supporters.

There are few men in this country against whom HORACE GREELEY has said more hard things than GRATZ BROWN and yet in his late letter accepting the Convention for associating his name with "that chivalrous and esteemed gentleman." Oh dear!

By the proceedings of the Senatorial Convention of the Second District it will be seen that Jos. W. ETHERIDGE, of Dare and JOHN B. RESPASS, of Beaufort, were nominated. They are sound Republicans and able men.

Republicanism is Justice, Reason and Common Sense applied to Public Affairs. It is the only party now alive in this country which is able to give a reason, a law, or a principle. Then let every true man rally around its banner.

A terrible fire occurred in Yeddo, the Capitol of Japan, on the 3rd ult., destroying 5000 edifices and turning 20,000 people homeless in the streets. This is said to be one of the greatest calamities that has befel that city since its foundation.

We would like to ask a few of our Democratic cotemporaries a question. Which do they consider the more honorable—a falsehood by implication, or a lie told outright? They can answer at their leisure.

We do not believe there is any perfect safety to the Republic short of the total demolition of the Democratic party as a party organization; nor can we regard any man as a true friend of the country who aids to restore that party to power.

The past acts of the Republican party are a better guarantee of what the country may expect than the mere resolutions of a new party. Actions always speak louder than words.

The United States Court convenes in Raleigh on the 3rd of June. The Ku Klux trials will not commence before the 10th.

Poor men of North Carolina! Who was it that labored day and night to defeat your Homesteads? Judge MERRIMAN and his friends. Remember that.

Mechanics and laboring men! remember that it was Gov. CALDWELL and his friends that gave you the first lein law you ever had.

"The administration of Grant has been a terrible misfortune."—Democratic paper

So was any Administsation that kept the offices away from Democrats.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—The June number of the Eclectic contains as the continuation of the series of men eminent in American public life, a fine portrait in steel of Senator Carl Schurz. This is perhaps the best portrait of Mr. Schurz that has been published, and taken in connection with the other portraits that have already appeared, or which are yet to come, will make the current volumes of the Magazine especially valuable.

The leading articles of the June number are: Sir Henry Holland's Recollections; The Portuguese in Africa; Wanderings in Tapan; Temperature and Movements of the Deep Sea; A Memior of Mazzini; About Charles Lamb; Superhuman Dwelling-places; Monks of La Trapp; Our Dinners; The Asria, by Robert Buchanan; Chemistry in the Kitchen; and several others of equal attractiveness. The Editoral Departments are full as usual, and The Strange Adventures of a Phaston is continued.

Chowan Baptist Association.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

Perhaps a brief account of the Association now past would be of some interest to your readers, for the benefit of whom the following is respectfully submitted:

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.,
Tuesday, May 21st, 1872.

The Association assembled this day in its sixty sixth annual session at the Baptist Church of this place at 11 o'clock A. M.

The Introductory sermon was preached by Elder R. R. Savage, of Northampton County, N. C. After sermon the Association adjourned for dinner, every body having been invited to partake of the bounty prepared for the occasion by Elder R. R. Overby.

Afternoon Session.

At 2 o'clock P. M., the Association reassembled being called to order by Dr. G. C. Moore, Moderator for the transaction of business. After reelecting all the former officers, the Secretary proceeded to call the roll of Delegates, all the Churches being represented, with few exceptions. There being more than sixty in all comprising the Association. Various Committees were then appointed after which letters from the different Churches were read occupying the remainder of the day.

Preaching at 7 o'clock P. M. in the Baptist Church by Elder Bradford of Eastern Shore, Va., and in the M. E. Church by Elder Knapp, of Edenton N. C.

Wednesday 2d day, Morning Session.

The Association convened at 9 o'clock A. M. G. C. Moore, Moderator, in the chair. The cause of State Missions was now taken up. Eloquent appeals were made in its behalf by Eld. Hufham and others, in which their success exceeded their most sanguine expectations. This occupied all the forenoon.

Preaching at 11 o'clock A. M. in the M. E. Church by Eld. G. W. Sanderlin, of Baltimore, Md.,

Afternoon Session.

On reassembling the claim of the Edenton Church was discussed. Contributions to rebuild it were liberal. Other matters of minor importance consumed the remainder of the day. Preaching at 7 o'clock P. M. in the Baptist Church by Eld. J. N. Hoggard, of Murfresboro, N. C., and in the M. E. Church by Eld. Red, of Greenville, S. C.

Thursday 3d day, Morning Session.

The Association convened at the usual hour. Business was transacted until 11 o'clock. W. M. Wingate D. D. Pres. W. F. College, preached the Conventional Sermon at this hour.

Afternoon Session.

The body reassembled at 2 o'clock P. M., Reports on Periodicals, Temperance, Sabbath Schools, Wake Forest College, Baptist State Convention and Finance were submitted and adopted, after which the cause of Sunday School Mission Work was strenuously advocated by Eldders Red and Simpson. J. H. Mills, Ed Biblical Recorder, Raleigh, N. C., submitted a few remarks in behalf of the Baptist State Paper. The claim of the Williamston Church was then presented after which Eld. Hufham announced that the whole amount of money collected for this and other causes amounted to two thousand and sixty dollars. He hurrahed for the poor Baptists of Chowan Association and said the last collection in his opinion, was gathering up the frogments.

A resolution of thanks was now tendered the R. R. and S. T. companies for their accommodation and favors extended to the Delegates and visitors of the Body, and to the citizens of E. City for the cordiality and hospitality manifested towards them during the session.

At 7 o'clock P. M., closing sermon by Eld. T. J. Knapp, of Edenton, N. C., to a large and attentive congregation. The exercises were closed by singing a parting Hymn and bidding each other adieu until the meeting of the Connaritsa Church, Bertie County N. C., or until they should meet in the general Association which will convene beyond the skies.

Preaching at 7 o'clock P. M., in the M. E. Church by Elder Dnrham, of Goldsboro, N. C., and in the African Church by Eld. C. J. Nelson.

The Association passed off harmoniously.

Respectfully,
SPECTATOR.

A dispatch from Hagerstown, Md. says Alexander Smith, Wesley Finnegan, and Frederick Fridinger were killed on Friday by the falling of the walls of the old Court-house, which was burned last December, and which the workmen were engaged in taking down.

Our Washington Letter.
No 20

Washington, D. C., May 23rd, 1872

TOO EARLY ADJOURNMENT.

The jealousy manifested by the respective Houses of Congress in relation to adjournment is not calculated to subserve the best interest of the government. Many grave interests will doubtless suffer by the adoption of the Senate resolution by the House to adjourn on the 29th inst., after the House had failed to secure the acquiescence of the Senate in the House resolution fixing the 3rd of June as the time for adjournment. This cuts seven days off the time which the House, according to its former vote, believed to be necessary. The resolutions should be rescinded, and the Senate and House should agree to continue the session at least until the 3rd proximo. Hundreds of bills of great importance have been labored on in Committees for months past only to be thrown aside for want of a few days more time to carry them into force.

All night sessions of the Senate, such as that of Tuesday last, when the elderly men who compose that branch of our national legislature are worn out in vigor of body and mind, cannot make up the loss of the number of days actually required for due deliberation on public measures. Already Washington is full of Committees to aid the lobbyist in efforts to put through bills which should not pass, and which if time for simple explanation was given, could not receive sufficient votes, but in the scramble and hurry of night sessions these jobbing bills are ingeniously tacked on to important measures, and become by the dint of the management and necessity arising out of a combination of haste and misunderstanding on the part of Senators and Members.

A single week of working days will prevent the evil doings of these professional operators on the haste of Congress.

THE REVENUE.

Hon Mr. Dawes pressed to a vote, under the Monday two-thirds rule for suspending the rules of the House, the Tariff bill without further amendment. This action will throw great responsibility on the Finance Committee of the Senate, as in its crude state many errors will need corrections. Among other matters is that of encouraging informers to report frauds in the Treasury by means of informer's shares. Without some substitute for this means to which all civilized governments resort it will be impossible to collect the revenue. Whiskey and tobacco rings will run the entire couutry, as they have done before under a week administration of the government despite the use of ordinary means. Without them fraud and force will rule supreme. This is but a sample of the omission which the House's haste in finances will necessarily cause, unless the slower action of the Senate repairs them. Already "Plug" and "Fine cut" have shown their organization before the Senate Finance Committee and pressed a reduced rate of taxation before it. If this is all the effort they make to get rid of paying revenue, all will be well, but the proposition to tax, whiskey seventy cents will rouse the slumbering devil of alcohol, and the U. S. Government need all its forces to resist the tricks of this monster.

SECRETARY ROBESON ACQUITTED.

At last the report on Robeson Investigation has been made. Mr. Blair, the chairman, who conducted the examination on the principle that the party charged is guilty until his innocence is proven, postponed the inevitable report in favor of Secretary Robeson, until the majority were obliged to delegate another to make it. The majority report stands up in a manly avowal of the innocence of the Secretary as shown by the slanderous falsehood of all the charges against him. Mr. Blair cannot be convinced against his will that come irregularities have not occured in the Navy Department, though he is compelled to admit that none of the charges were proven, and to acquit the Secretary of them all.

It is well known that Mr. Blair has had a very sore head since the people of Michigan failed to discover his superiority to Senator Ferry, your correspondent regrets to see in this course one of many evidences that Austin Blair is not the coming man of Michigan.

His disposition to stand well balanced on the political fence to look over liberal shoulders has long been noticed. He is certainly a weak brother in the cause he has professed to espouse and his report is a first class bid for the enemy to be taken to his bosom. But he will find that Michigan is not Connecticut.

CIVIL RIGHTS.

The passage of the Carpenter amendment to Sumner's civil rights bill as a preliminary measure to a vote on amnasty did not suit the impervious Sumner, and he gave this as a reason why he voted against amnesty. He will perhaps have further occasion to remember that however distinguished a public servant may be his personal wishes should be subordinate to the will of the people. In monarchies even, such exhibitions of temper are rarely seen and never considered in taste, how much less so are they under our institutions. The bill as passed the Senate is so far behind a huge pile of other bills that it has little chance of being reached by the House during the present session. The same fate probably attends the bill passed Wednesday morning extending the principle of suspending the writ of habeas corpus to March 3rd 1873.

An Insult to the Democracy.

Mr. Greeley's very nomination was an insult to the Democracy, for all his life has he been one of their bitterest, most relentless, and most fanatical antagonists. Are the Democracy of Pennsyvania prepared to eat the "humble pie" thus presented? So far as our section of the State is concerned we feel confident in asserting that an indorsement of the Cincinnati nominees by the Democracy would cost us more Democratic votes by far than could be made up by Liberal Republicans. We hear the declaration every day from reliable and consisteut Democrats that under no circumstances would the vote for Greeley, no matter who nominated him. They could never vote for Grant; but they look upon Greeley as a poor exchange. In some respects Grecley may be better than Grant, but in others he is worse. Starting with Fourierism and other impracticable socialistic theories, he has for the last thirty years been identified with all the isms of the day, and advocated them with a blind zeal which, in spite of his undoubted abilities and honesty of purpose, stamped him as a monomaniac unfit to be the ruler of a great nation. But more objectionable even than this is the fact that he has ever been the advocate of the interest of the monopolists and privileged classes, sumptuary laws, and of a strong government generally.—From the Reading Eagle (Democratic), May 18.

Democratic trio—Merrimon, Swepson's friend—Clingman who received more than Fifteen Hundred Dollars from Swepson—and the Democratic State Printer, who robbed the State of more than Three Thousand Dollars. This trio composes three of the leaders of the Democratic party.—Era.

Economy just in a Vengeance.

The Democrats are boasting of the reforms and retrenchments effected by the last legislature. We give a single instance of their duplicity and doubledealing. They claim to have abolished the office of Supreme Court Reporter. The truth is they have only transferred the duties and pay to the Atterney General whose emoluments now foot up thus:

As Attorney General,	$1,500
For attending on Supreme Court,	200
As Fraud Commissioner,	1,500
As Reporter,	600
Sales of Reports,	1,000
Making	$4,8000

And yet when the Governor sent this same Attorney General to Rutherford county to investigate the Ku Klux outrages, he charged his expenses to the State, and the Legislature allowed them and ordered the Treasurer to pay them! That's the way the Democrats retrench! —Era.

A very helpless Pittsburg tailor advertises for "one or two steady girls to help on pantaloons."

"Playing Texas on 'en." is the Alabama vernacular for the final disposition of horse-thieves.

The Ministerial crisis continues in Spain; Marshal Serrano has been requested to form a new Ministry.

Horace Greeley has written a letter, dated May 20, accepting unconditionally the nomination for the Presidency tendered him by the Cincinnati Convention.

Judge Ross Wilkins died on Friday in Detroit, aged 74 years. He was appointed by President Jackson, in 1832, and held office until two years ago, when he voluntarily retired.

The Toledo Blade says: "Dan Voorhees is being read out of the Democratic party by Democratic papers because he is trying to keep it a Democratic party. The Democratic free-traders will not endure Daniel because he objects to voting for a Republican protectionist. Democracy is in a queer fix just now. 'If I am Ami, I am Ami; if I am not Ami, who the deuce am I?'"

Congress.

On the 24th inst., in the Senate, the Ku Klux discussion was continued. ——In the House, considerable progress was made with the Tariff and Tax bill, the free list being enlarged. An amendment was adopted authorizing the payment of one-third of the customs duties in legal tenders.

On the 22nd inst., in the Senate the Ku Klux and Amnesty bills were discussed——In the House but little of public interest.

On the 23rd inst., in the Senate the bill to abolish the iron-clad oath was reported. Most of the session was occupied in discussing the supplementary article to the Washington Treaty, without result. In the House the Civil Appriation bill was passed.

On the 24th inst., in the Senate, the conference report on the Post-Office Appropriation bill was agreed to. A secret session was held for the consideration of the Supplementary Treaty.——In the House, a Conference Committee was ordered on the Army Appropriation bill. The Conference Committee on the Post-Office bill was discussed, objection being made to the Brazilian Steamship subsidy.

Talk at the Toilet.—Every lady's maid knows that the bewitching beings who pave their triumphant way with conquered hearts, regard a splendid head of hair effective of all womanly facinations. They believe, and they are right, that they can lesso as many beaux with the luxurient ringlets and glossy braids as they can "kill at sight" with their beaming eyes. Hence in their "toilet talk" among themselves and with their attendants, the merits of preparations for the hair are freely canvassed, and the latest result of this discussed seems to be the almost universal adoption of Lyon's Kathairon as an article better adopted to promote the growth and beauty of the "Chief Glory of Women" than any other at present before the world. They say that without irritating the skin of the head it eradiate dandruff, and that it penetrates below the surface to the roots of the hair, endowing them with new life and vigor.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the following new advertisements in this issue.

Merchandise.
Proclamation.
Bankrupt Notice.
Assignee's Notices.

Local and Personal.

☞ Strawberries are abundant and cheap.

☞ Judge ALBERTSON is holding Court in Camden this week.

☞ The corn is looking well. And so are the crops generally.

☞ Do not fail to read the new advertisement of the Land & Lumber Company on our fourth page.

☞ Our friend JOSIAH NICHOLSON of Belvidere, brings us a sample of orchard grass measuring four feet.

☞ Most of our rains fall at night—seemingly just for Nature to wash her face and look fresh in the morning.

☞ Increase the circulation of the NORTH CAROLINIAN. Now is the time to do it. The cash must accompany all orders.

☞ A press of matter has crowded out the able comments of a friend on the speech of Judge MERRIMON. It was unavoidable.

☞ We had friendly calls from numerous friends from the several counties of this Senatorial district on Tuesday. They were attending the Convention.

☞ Our Reporter has furnished us with a synopsis of the proceedings of the Baptist Association held at this place last week. It will be read with interest.

☞ In addition to the fact the nearly one eighth of the taxes of this county are paid by the "Northern element" we learn that they now own about one fifth of the land of the county.

☞ "To go or not to go" for HORACE is now the question among the Democrats of this locality. It is a conundrum for them to settle. We are glad we are not a Democrat, to be thus puzzled.

☞ How to grow rich: Earn money fairly, spend less than you earn, and hold on to the difference. The first takes muscle, the second self-control, and the third brais.

☞ Our young friend J. P. GRANDY has returned to Norfolk. He sold his stock of goods to C. B. BROTHERS who will continue the business at the old Stand at the Canal Bridge on Road Street. See his advertisement.

☞ Is it true that some of the young gentlemen of our City are going to wear Dolly Varden vests and pantaloons this summer? Our Devil thinks it will be gay to see them looking like pieces of pernambulating upholstered furniture.

☞ D. W. BAIN, Esq., Chief Clerk of the State Treasury, was in town last week. He was looking after the State's interests in the Williamston and Tarboro Rail Road which has recently gone into Bakruptcy. There was a creditor's meeting before Register COSTEN.

☞ This is Decoration day, and throughout the North will be generally celebrated in a becoming manner by patriotic citizens. We see from the Annapolis papers that extensive preparations have been made for an imposing demonstration there. An oration will be delivered by Chaplain W. R. COBB of the U. S. Navy.

☞ When the Democrats, at our late municipal election "swallowed the nigger," they were told it would result in a party advantage at the August election. But they are already realizing the pangs of torture—that so far from any such favorable operation of the dose, it has produced a political dyspepsia defying the skill of all the Democratic doctors. We have heard of several instances in which it came near proving fatal!

☞ We had a pleasant visit one day last week from Capt. ABBEY, of the Revenue Steamer "Steavens." He is very much of a gentleman. Among many other items of interest he informed us that the Shad poles placed along the Sound from Croatan to near Wade's Point are sprouting out and are in leaf, evidently growing. He thinks it probable that they will eventually make a shady grove, extending over two miles in length. They have been there now over three years.

☞ The leading Democrats of this county are fearfully disappointed. They confidently predicted that "GRANDY and his friends" would retaliate by bolting the Congressional nomination. But they reckoned without their host. The wish was father to the thought. Mr. GRANDY and his friends are not in the habit of acting to please the enemy. They are Republicans in spirit as well as in name. They never bolt a regular nomination. They not only support but will earnestly work for the ticket.

☞ The proceedings of the regular Republican Convention held in Camden on the 18th inst., reached us too late for last week's paper. They would be stale in this. WM. MCPHERSON was appointed chairman and LUKE HUGHES Secretary. Resolutions were adopted endorsing President GRANT, Gov. CALDWELL and Senator POOL. They likewise strongly endorsed the NORTH CAROLINIAN. The following were appointed the County Executive Committee: A. P. Cherry, Chairman, Luke Hughes and Harrison Kight.

☞ Judge ALBERTSON attended the meeting of the United States Centennia Commission at Philadelphia last week He is one of the North Carolina members of the Commission. They have fixed upon the time for opening the exhibition, on the 19th of April and close on the 19th of October, 1876, all articles for exposition to arrive by the 1st of January to secure proper position and classification. An invitation will be issued to every nation to participate, and acceptance of the invitation requested by March 4, 1874 and the same date has been fixed upon for receiving applications for space.

☞ We desire reliable and frequent correspondence from each county in this District. Let the people of each county demonstrate that they feel an interest in the NORTH CAROLINIAN and it will very soon prove that it feels an interest in them. We are willing, nay anxious to spread before the public through our columns any fact, any item of interest existing or occuring in any part of the District. Friends, we are willing to aid you. Show to us by an increased patronage that you desire us to do so.

☞ The Democracy of Camden held their nominating convention on Monday. They had a lively time of it. Col. LUKE managed to euchre his competitors and got the nomination for Legislature. For Register of Deeds the present incumbent was incontinently thrown overboard to give a place for SAMUEL MORRISET of Shiloh. Mr. AYDLOT was renominated for Sheriff. The speech of the day was made by our friend Dr SPEED. Our reporter says "R hard was himself again." He shot arrows tipped with the saliva from the tongue of the rabid Democracy, and his adjectives and nvectives cracked and rattled like mighty claps of thunder! Ugh!!

☞ The Senatorial Nominating Convention of this District was held here on Tuesday. The utmost harmony prevailed. The nominees—C. W. GRANDY Jr. and J. L. CHAMBERLAIN—give entire satisfaction. They will enter the canvas vigorously and carry the Republican banner to victory. An able address was made by Hon. C. C. POOL. It was replete with logic and full of humor. He clearly demonstrated his power to make an able and effective speech. The clouds are disappearing, the skies are brightening, and we go into the campaign with confidence that the action of the Convention will be ratified by the people in August next.

☞ The proceedings of the Congressional Convention at Plymouth have not yet reached us. There were six ballots. The first stood 5 and a fraction for Hon. C. L. COBB, of Pasquotank, 5 for Col. D. McD. LINDSEY of Perquimans, 3 for Hon. J. J. MARTIN of Martin and 2 for LOUIS HILLARD, Esq., of Pitt. On the second ballot the votes of MARTIN were cast for MCLINDSEY, raising them to 8. On the sixth ballot MCLINDSEY transferred enough votes to COBB to nominate him. It was then made unanimous. Dr. E. RANSOM, of Tyrrell, was selected for Elector, and LOUIS HILLARD, Esq., of Pitt and THOMAS A. SYKES of Pasquotank were appointed delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, with JOHN B. RESPESS of Beaufort and W. D. NEWSOM of Hertford as Alternates.

☞ In a few weeks the NORTH CAROLINIAN will have completed its third volume. It was started as an experiment. Many doubted the wisdom of the enterprise, fearing that the time had not yet come when a liberal and progressive journal could be sustained in Eastern Carolina. We made the venture, and we still live. Our efforts have been appreciated by the reading and business public, and the paper has so far established itself in their confidence that they insist that it must be continued. Of course. It has become an important lever in the cause of Development and Progress that cannot be dispensed with. It must and WILL be continued. But we here give notice to those who desire to take, read and be benefited by it that they must pay for it. If any fail to receive it after this volume closes they will know the reason. Experience admonishes us to insist upon doing more of a cash business. To each one the amount is small, but to us the aggregate is all important. Let those now in arrears pay up, and we hope that all will promptly renew for the next year.

LOCAL POET-FOLIO.

Peculiar people—those who hold their tongues. Wanted—a key to undo a box on the ears. Already up—the first story of the new Hotel. Splendid music—that of the hammer, trowel and saw now heard all over the city. In market—ripe cherries. A new sign—at Weisel's on Water Street. Kept busy—the little Steam Mill of Dr. UNDERWOOD'S. Money is easy—to spend.

GOOD NEWS FROM CAMDEN.

A Complete Reconciliation.

ASSURED REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

Two rival delegations from Camden County presented their credentials to the Plymouth Convention. The delegation appointed on the 18th inst., was admitted. Since then harmony has been restored and both delegations were admitted to seats in the Senatorial Convention, which met here on Tuesday. A proper spirit of compromise has been manifested by both sides, which it will be well for Republicans all over the district to imitate.

Business Locals.

Still going—going—going! We mean those nice Spring and Summer goods at Fowlers.

Wanted—Ten thousand feet of Cypress logs by Land & Lumber Company. Bring them at once.

Fulmer's Eating Saloon is well patronized. No wonder. He understands how to cater to the appetite and the wants of the people.

Never weary in waiting on his North Carolina friends—A. E. Jacobs. He makes it a point to satisfy them both as to price and quality of goods. Go and see him when you go to Norfolk. Remember the place—35 Market Square.

Ice! Ice!! Ice!!!

Just received a large cargo of Rockland Lake Ice at the Elizabeth City Ice House. Can supply all parties in large or small quantities. Price $20 per ton, or from 1½ to 2 cents per lb in small quantities.

HOW WE USED TO BE PHYSICKED.—Who does not remember the time when spring purgation was considered indispensable to summer health? No matter for wry faces, the inevitable salts and senna rhubarb, or calomel and jalap, must be administered. These "spring medicines," the youngsters were told, were to keep them hale and hearty during the summer. We all know now that this was a falacy; that new vigor, not depletion, is what is required at the commencement of the summer solstice. As a preparation for the enervating effects of oppressive summer weather, a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is highly expedient. This famous vegetable preparation has three prominent properties. It renovates, purifies, and regulates all the functions of the body. It is composed exclusively of pure vegetable productions, viz: the essential principle of Monongahela Rye, and the most efficacious tonic and alternate roots, barks, and gums known to medical botanists. Hence, it is an absolutely safe medicine, and no tincture of the Pharmacopoeia can compare with it in other comprehensive results. Happily for mankind, the theory that it was necessary to prostrate a patient in order to cure him, is forever exploded, and the true philosophical doctrine, that vigor is the great antagonist of disease, has taken its place. Hostetter's Bitters is an invigorant, and hence it is the proper medicine for the feeble at this most trying season of the year.

Be sure that you obtain the genuine article, as there are innumerable vile imitations in the market. Look to the ornamental stamp, the engraved label, and the name blown into the glass. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is sold in Bottles only.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA & QUEEN'S DELIGHT.

No remedy possesses so many valuable Medicinal Properties as this combination of Roots, Herbs and Barks. The QUEEN'S DELIGHT is acknowledged by Physicians to be the most powerful remedy known for Impure Blood, Liver Complaint, Nervousness; Female Complaints; Contipation; Rheumatism; Diseases of the Kidneys; Syphilitic Affections; Skin Diseases; Chronic Complaints, &c. But in this preparation it is combined with other vegetable products, which renders its virtues doubly valuable. Most Diseases have their origin in the blood, and as a Blood Purifier the SARSAPARILLA AND QUEEN'S DELIGHT has no equal. It requires but a trial to convince the most sceptical.

For Female Complaints, whether in young or old, married or single; at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, Dr. TUTT'S Liver Pills are an acknowledged remedy.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye has No Bad Oder.

A NEW BEAUTIFYING AGENT.—All Dentifrices had their drawbacks, until the Salubrious Bark of the Soap Tree was brought from the Chilian Valleys to perfect the fragrant Sozodont, the most delightful article for the teeth that a brush was ever dipped into.

"CHILDREN'S LIVES SAVED LOR 50 CENTS."—Every case of Croup can be cured when first taken, by Dr. Tobias' Venitian Liniment, warranted for 24 years and never a bottle returned. It also cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Burns and External Pains. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

VENUS herself would not have been beautiful if her complexion had been bad. If beauty is skin deep, it is necessary to secure and retain that part of it; and ladies instead of resorting to paints and powders, should remember that an impure, blotchy, or sallow skin is the product of feeble digestion, torpid liver, or vitiated blood, for all which DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS is a safe, sure, and effectual remedy.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.—No oils, neither pomades or alcoholic washes—foreign or domestic—can compare with Cocoaine as a HAIR DRESSING. It anchors the hair firmly in the scalp—gives it new life and lustre—and renders it the "crowning glory" of both sexes, old and young.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.—Safest and best illuminating Oil ever made. Does not take fire or explode, if the lamp is upset or broken. Over 150,000 families continues to use it, and no accident of any description have occured from it. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

BEAUTIFUL WHITE, soft smooth, and clear skin is produced by using G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sunburns, and all other discolorations from the skin leavine the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sole at all druggists. This preparation is entirely free from any material detriment to health. JUST THE REMEDY NEEDED.—Thanks to Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, we have been relieved from sleepless nights of painful watching with poor, suffering teething children.

FOR DYSPEPSIA. Indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers. The Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell Hazard & Co., New York, sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

RISLEY'S GENUINE GOLDEN BALL COLOGN WATER according to the original formula of Provost, Paris, so long and favorably known to the customers of Haviland, Harral and Risley and their branches, for its fine permanent fragrance is now made by H. W. Risley and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, Wholesale Druggists, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

CARBOLIC SALVE, recommended by the leading Physicians and the President of the New York Board of Health, as the most wonderful Healing compound ever known. Gives instant relief to burns, curres all kinds of sores, cuts and wounds; and a most invaluable salve for all purposes. Sold everywhere at 25 cents. John F. Henry, sole Proprietor, 8 College Place, New York.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE is the safest and best, it corrects the bad effects of inferior dyes, while the black or brown tints it produces are identical to nature. Factory 68 Maiden Lane, New York.

SYAPNIA is Opium purified of its sickening and poisonous properties, discovered by Dr. Bigelow, Professor of Botany, Detroit Medical College. A most perfect anodyne and soothing opiata. John Farr, Chemist, New York.

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. AGR TURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Improving Soils by Mixing.

There is a large quantity of arable soil which would be improved and made capable of cheap cultivation and the production of larger crops, if it could be mixed with earth of a different nature. The farmer knows the defects of his soil. It may be a stiff, heavy clay, and he wishes there were more sand in it; it may be the reverse, and clay the ingredient wanting to perfect it. However desirable it would be to mix soils, the great expense in most cases, stands in the way of its accomplishment; it is only where peculiar circumstances exist that the work can be done with profit. Where these conditions do exist, mixing soils is one of the most paying improvements the farmer can make. We sometimes find in loamy soils where the subsoil is clay, knolls composed of quite pure and barren sand—a poor, tandy knoll," the owner terms it, from which he never gets produce enough to pay for its cultivation, unless it is heavily manured. Manure on such spots does not last long, as its virtue either leaches downward, or is all required to make the crop which finds, little clay to assist. The best improvement on such knolls, is to cover them with clay soil, which can usually be obtained near by. The best time to do this is with a crop immediately preceding grass, as the clay helps from a thick turf, and thus makes vegetable matter. Just as frequently do we see clay knolls in lands entirely friable and easy of tillage. Drought cuts short the crops on these and makes it exceedingly difficult to plow. The best ingredient for these is mucky, loamy earth or sand improves them wonderfully. There are many instances of this land where mixing soils would be practicable, and prove remunerative. On a general scale we cannot afford the expense of mixing soils, but occasionally very decided improvement may be made by bringing up the subsoil with the plow, and mingling it with the top soil. It may be rich in mineral food for plants. —American Rural Home.

Early Vs. Late Lambs.

Writer in Hearth and Home says "In spring, in a flock of sheep, he had in February lambs, and only one among them. The breeds are Cotswold and grade Southdown. The result, he thinks, is owing to prompt attention at time, and regular feeding. The has a large open shed facing the south with the run of yard in which there were no other animals. In a yard frequented by cattle and horses, they frequently get injured, and premature births are caused. They have been fed regularly on good hay, turnips, carrots, and oats, a meal in moderate quantities. The as been to keep them in good condition. For this purpose he puts as invaluable in connection with feed. The appetite has been good, and the lambs have had plenty milk from the start. With care and shelter, he regards the raising lambs in February as not better than that of having them in May. The profit is altogether on the early lambs. The market is exceptionally bare in May and June, and is supplied up to the middle of July the butchers talk seductively, but are not foolish enough to sell when can get your own price for fed at home and sold in the village. The Winter lambs, well managed will bring from $8 to $10 each the first of July. If only market by August or September will hardly bring half there

Question of Vitality in Grain.

Farming Farmer" inquires if seed of different kinds of grain a year or two will grow as well as fresh seed. He would be, always sow seed as can be had, for although some will germinate after it has been kept, yet these are exceptions. We know of any distinct experiments with new grain, except it be a single which we made in pots. Fresh seed was sown in pots in autumn, and kept, and kept properly moist. One pot, subjected to the same temperature and the same degree of moisture as our own wheat kept over one year. The pots, seed five years old, was under similar circumstances. The fresh seed came up in eleven days, the latter being rather cool; the second one year old, came up in thirteen. The five-year seed in the pot came up irregularly, the first few days, and afterwards for nearly a month. The grains of all were alike when placed in the earth, and the result was that all the fresh seed came up or nearly all the one year; about one-half the five-year seed ever came up. From these limited experiments we may infer that fresh seed is the best; if only a year old it will be, although the plants will not have the vigor of the first; but that 3 years old should be employed for preserving or securing some rare variety. We hope some of our readers will repeat the experiment on a larger scale, etc., by accurately counting, depth, recording dates, etc.—Gentlemen.

Plaster for Potatoes.

Writing to Mr. Campton, author of "Say on the cultivation of the Very remarkable results are obtained by plaster by dusting the vines soon as they are through the ground immediately after the last hoeing; and at intervals the whole growing season. The application may be light, the second and after that more bountiful, two pounds to the acre. It renders the grass less palatable to insects, and will be fatal to many of the fungi the vines retain a bright, livelier color, and the tubers continue until growth is stopped by the vine, potatoes thus grown are so sound and free from disease as to be fit for the Spring market, without rot. Mr. Compton says he has sold, all planted with the same variety at the same time, on one-half of which he had received no plaster, the latter about 60 bushels per acre, and many rods; while the other half, to which plaster had been applied, yielded 360 bushels per acre, and not an unsound one among them.

The farmer or mechanic could better dispense with his barrel of pork than not have a good "kitchen garden," if only a few rods. In some parts of Europe cities and villages, the house-tops and other buildings are so constructed as to be profitably used to cultivate vegetables for both useful and ornamental purposes.

In caring for your fowls, provide them with a vessel of lime-water for an occasional drink. It is prepared by pouring hot water over quicklime, and after the lime is settled, and the water covering it has become clear, pour it off. It will keep fit for use for a considerable time.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.
OF VALUABLE
NORTH CAROLINA LANDS, FOR SALE BY
GEORGE D. POOL.
Real Estate Agent,
ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalisis and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3.000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3.000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3,500, $7,00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A Farm of 200 acres within one mile of Elizabeth City, with good two story dwelling, large barn and stables, and all necessary outhouses, orchard of fine fruit trees, and a large number of ornamental trees and shrubbery around dwelling. This farm is on one of the most public roads in the County—is in a high state of cultivation—has fine and durable fences, &c. Altogether, it is the richest land and most desirable location, anywhere in the neighborhood of the town. Price $6000—one-half cash, balance in easy payments.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Msuth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

SUPER-PHOSPHATE.
(We conrt the Chemist's inqury.)

After 23 years' experience in the Fertilizing business, and after establishing a wide reputation for the purity and excellence of his Bone Dust, the subscriber has been induced to prepare a Phosphate suitable to the requirements and every way worthy the gttention of the Southern Farmer.

The "MARYLAND" it a jurinator and permanent improver of the soil. It simulates equal to Peruvian Guano, and sustains equal to Bone, being composed almost entirely of these ingredients, with a very liberal per centage of Potash in the residum. There is no adulterator nor inferior article used—every particle of the Phosphate being of essential benefit to the land. Neither pains nor expense have been spared in its preparation, and we claim for it the greatest benefit to the farmer from the smallest cutlay.

For Cotton, Wheat and Corn, and as a general stimulant and ailment for worn and impoverished land there can be nothing superior. It is warranted to run as high in Ammonia and higher in Bone Phosphate than any other fertilizer in the market.

Price $50 per ton, in new bags. No charge for delivery.

BONE DUST $45, BONE MEAL $50, DISSOLVED BONE $42, our own manufacture, in new bogs; Eastern and Western BONE DUST $35. PERUVIAN GUANO delivered from Peruvian Government Warehouse at lowest rates. No charge for delivery.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN
TOBACCO SUSTAIN,
AND LAND RENEWER.

The Sustain is a specific restorer of the exhausted properties of impoverished and over strained land, and will generously repay the cost of its outlay in the quality and quantity of the Tobacco Crop, besides permanently improvin the soil and raising it to its virgin standard.

It gives vigor to the young plant, promotes its rapid growth, and insures, in the matured crop a thickened, heavy leaf.

It is prepared similarly to the Maryland except that it contains much more potash and other Tobacco forming properties.

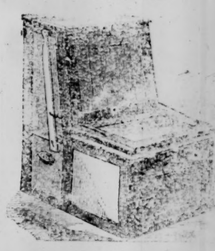
THE WAKEFIELD EARTH CLOSET



THE GREATEST BLESSING OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY IS THE

Discovery of the Dry Earth System and in connection therewith a practical method of using the same in

EARTH CLOSETS AND COMMODES.

We ask every decent person to aid us in banishing from the earth every vile country privy—those loathsome, indecent, pestiferous, health and life destroying structures—the bane of every country community. Every person thus engaged becomes a public benefactor.

By all odds the most complete and perfect yet invented is the

WAKEFIELD PATENT.

They have been adopted by the Central Park Commissioners, and 100 ordered for use in the park.

Application for agencies from responsible parties will be considered.

☞ Send for our descriptive pamphlet or call and see the Commodes, at the office of the Wakefield Earth Closet Company.
